Words Used And Their Definitions

Believable

Able to be believed or accepted as true

Bind

To tie as a means of restraining someone or something

Crucify

To nail a person to a cross or stake; The Romans did this to the worst criminals and made sure they would be seen to make an open example of those who rebelled against Rome

Cursed

Opposite of blessed; Curse of the Law is one example and is usually death, be it physical or spiritual; The curse of the Law is the result of breaking it, not the result of the Law itself; Affected by a negative consequence of an action such as breaking a covenant

Dispute

To argue

Equal

The same as something else

Impure

Unclean; Not completely pure

Legacy

The life and events of a person that can be remembered and have impacted individuals leading up to today. In the case of Jesus, His birth, death and resurrection have had the most important effect on humanity's relation with God. The act of Jesus taking our sin upon Himself has paved the way for us to once again have a right relationship with God the Father.

Saint

A person who is sanctified; in the Roman Catholic tradition, someone who is beatified and promoted to sainthood by the Pope.

Sturdy

Strong; Well built

Summon

To call upon; To beckon

Trickery

The use of underhanded or sneaky tactics to deceive someone

Tyre

A major city in Phoenicia

Victor

A person who succeeds in a battle, struggle, or competition
